A permit is required to own and keep domesticated hens in certain areas of Montgomery County. Please read Title 3, Chapter 1, Section 3-109, of the Clarksville City Code. If you have questions about whether you can maintain domesticated hens on your property, contact the Department of Building and Codes, (931) 645-7426. Permits are issued by the Department of Building and Codes and do not have to be renewed each year. Permits are not transferable to another property or to another person. The permit fee is $50 and must be paid when this application is submitted. As part of the permit application process, the applicant shall submit a site drawing showing the location of the chicken coop and enclosure in relationship to the applicant's real property line boundaries. Final permit approval shall be subject to inspection of the completed structure by the Department of Building and Codes. If you are unsure of the requested information (zoning, tax map / parcel), please contact the Montgomery County Assessor of Property Office at (931) 648-5709, or you may check the State of Tennessee Real Estate Assessment Data website at <http://www.assessment.state.tn.us/>

IMPORTANT NOTE YOU SHOULD KNOW

Many Home Owners Association (HOA) bylaws do not allow poultry of any kind, including domesticated hens. Applicants should check their HOA bylaws to confirm that domesticated hens are permissible prior to completing this application. This permit does not override existing Home Owners Association bylaws or Deed Restrictions.

Applicant Certification

I hereby certify that the information submitted is true and correct. In submitting this signed application, I acknowledge and agree that the permit is subject to all the terms and conditions set forth in Section 3-109 of the Clarksville City Code and any additional rules and regulations developed by the Department of Building and Codes in furtherance of this Section. I certify that I have read the rules and regulations and intend to abide by them. I understand that any false statements or omissions may result in denial or revocation of this permit. Failure to comply with the regulations is subject to a fine of $50 for each violation, with each day that a violation is uncorrected to be considered a separate violation.
